PRESS RELEASE

DAWSON COUNTY RECYCLING CENTER
TO HOST GRAND OPENING ON OCTOBER 3

Dawsonville, Ga. – The Dawson County Transfer Station is excited to announce the grand opening celebration for the Dawson County Recycling Center at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, October 3. The public is invited to a ribbon cutting ceremony at the facility located at 946 Burt Creek Road in Dawsonville. The event will be held rain or shine.

The Dawson County Recycling Center will offer source-separated recycling of Plastic #1, Plastic #2, Plastic #2 Natural, and Aluminum. Bins will be labeled with signage allowing citizens to determine what is and is not acceptable for each compactor. The facility will be open 7 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday and closed Sunday and Monday. Citizens are encouraged to have all recycling materials separated before arrival.

The Dawson County Recycling Center is dedicated to protecting and improving the environment by providing high-quality recycling and refuse services. For more information, please visit www.dawsoncountyga.gov/publicworks.
